August 16, 2021

Dear Friends and Families of Music on Market,

After many months without music, with such isolation and social distance, it gives us great pleasure to announce our 2021-2022 season. Like many of you, we never would have imagined we would have lived, survived, and come out on the other side of a once in a lifetime pandemic! It is in that spirit that we are thrilled to once again be making music and offer you this wide variety of concerts to attend. So without further ado, it is with a great deal of excitement and pride that I, along with the Board of Directors of the Music on Market Fine Arts Series, announce the 2021-2022 concert season. Please take a moment to view the enclosed poster highlighting the concerts in our upcoming season. We are excited to present these incredible musical offerings to the Wilmington community! Your vital support through contributions, especially following the past year we have all endured, and attendance make this series possible.

Once again, our upcoming season presents a very diverse series of musical styles and tastes. We are proud to draw large audiences of both church and Wilmington community members, of all ages, and of all musical preferences. We hope that you will help us spread the word! We love a crowd!

How can you help? Support this outreach ministry with a financial contribution to help with the costs of this concert series, participate either on-stage or behind the scenes, and be present at each and every one of our concerts to help welcome the Wilmington community to our church. Don't forget to visit our website www.musiconmarket.org. You can also "like" us on Facebook.

We'd like to extend a great big THANK YOU to all of our Patrons from past seasons and an enormous WELCOME to all new Patrons for 2021-2022. Please prayerfully consider the Patrons Form below and help in any and all ways you can! We look forward to getting to know many of you and welcoming you back to our series as we share in the love of music!

Sincerely,

Angela L. Burns, Artistic Director
